The Order Of The Cross

SPIRITUAL AIMS AND IDEALS

The Order is an informal Fellowship; having for its service in life the cultivation of the Spirit of Love towards all souls: Helping the weak and defending the defenceless and oppressed;
Abstaining from hurting the creatures, eschewing bloodshed and flesh eating, and living upon the pure foods so abundantly provided by nature;
Walking in the Mystic Way of Life, whose Path leads to the realization of the Christhood; And sending forth the Mystic Teachings unto all who may be able to receive them - those sacred interpretations of the Soul, the Christhood, and the Divine Love and Wisdom, for which the Order of the Cross stands.

Welcome to the latest issue of Spiritual Reflections - a quarterly publication for Enquirers of the Message of The Order of the Cross.

This latest issue aims to explore the wonderful theme of Springtime and Renewal.

The Order is a Global Fellowship with groups meeting in the UK, America, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and a few members in other parts of the World.

The Fellowship was founded by the Reverend John Todd Ferrier to present the World with a new way of reading, understanding and living a spiritual life; and to further the Aims and Ideals of living a pure life with no harm coming to any of the creatures, or to our fellow man. This is a life of pacifism where every man, woman and child knows Love and respect.

The books are all the work of our Founder, John Todd Ferrier, and can be found on our website www.orderofthecross.org and on many platforms as printed books, ebooks or audio books, by searching for 'John Todd Ferrier'.

Much more about our beautiful Fellowship can also be found on our website.

Spiritual Reflections is edited by Andrea Kerr. She would welcome thoughts, questions, comments and contributions from our readers.

The Coming of Spring

Spring has dawned upon the World, intent upon clothing the fields, the woods and the gardens in delightful garments of fragrant beauty, testifying of the Presence, even in Nature, of HIM Whom we love to speak of as the FATHER-MOTHER. Whilst the operations of Spring are in process, and the songs of the trees and flowering bushes are expressed in the exquisite harmonies of their blooms, both in form and colour, we can hear the Angels singing delightful songs of Thanksgiving unto HIM Whose ministry they reveal in lowly estate, testifying by their life and manifestation that they are HIS Own Handiwork.

- The Herald of the Cross, Vol 12, by John Todd Ferrier.

*Oh daffodils your yellow glory
Tells of natures marvellous story.
Tells of Love which brought you forth
From the sweet dew watered earth.
And a joy you seem to bring,
Like a child's first murmuring.*

The Divine Life-Stream

The Divine Life-stream is the Magnetic Divine Life-stream. The Spiral Breath is a Stream that flows out from the equatorial region of the solar body. The Sun, as we have said elsewhere, is not what he appears to be. He is a glorious spiritual and even divine body. He is the very sum of the hierarchy of the Divine World of this system. He is, in his glory, the auric splendour of all the Beings who dwell in Sol, that is, in the solar body. The things with which material science deals relate not to that body, but to the envelope which is an atmosphere and atmospheria around the sun—the atmospheria relating to the outer magnetic display, and the atmosphere to what is known as the photosphere, which is composed of glorious elements of a high celestial order, in a state of accommodation for ministry to this world, and the other members of this system. From that Divine World there flows out a Stream of the most glorious magnetic nature. That Stream is of the very substance of the Divine World in a state of elemental condition (using the word in a most inward sense). It is reduced to a living magnetic Stream that can reach forth and touch this earth and other worlds, and all the children unto whom the Sun directly ministers. In that Stream this world once moved. All the members of this system moved within it. That Divine Stream is the quickener of all life upon this world and all the worlds of the system. Without it there could not be any manifestation of life, there could be no realization of Being. A world of a planetary order right outside of it, or souls of a human order never touching it, would pass away. Though this world does not now move within that Stream, and has not done so for long, long ages, indeed, not since the great Descent, or Fall as it has been called, was fully accomplished, yet twice a year it passes through it at the Vernal and the Autumnal Equinoxes. Its play upon the planet in the Vernal Equinox, is direct upon this hemisphere; and in the Autumnal Equinox direct upon the other hemisphere. The result is that we have Spring in this hemisphere through the Vernal Equinox taking place; and in the other hemisphere, during our winter, through the Autumnal Equinox.

- Life's Mysteries Unveiled, p55-56 by John Todd Ferrier.

Inspirations for Spring!

“To know the Wisdom, you have to come into the Stream and live it. To have high illumination you must be in the Stream where GOD can cause HIS Radiance to fall upon you, and illumine you. ... To know HIM in the Great Realization ... you must realize HIM in yourself. Through HIS encompassing and overshadowing and HIS Indwelling, you must contact and become one with HIM.”

- Divine Renaissance vol 1, p187

Music for Spring

Vivaldi – Danza Pastorale from The Four Seasons

Elgar – Chanson de Matin

Grieg – To the Spring

Love has no day's off
Or early closing though Love is in both work
and reposing,
In Love there is no buying
or selling;
It's riches are beyond
The telling.

Easter

The Festival of Easter is one associated with the historical setting given to the resurrection of the Master known as Jesus.

Thus, Easter Morning is like Spring when all nature is awakening in this hemisphere, quickened anew in its hidden life for manifestation, rejuvenated through the glorious magnetic Life-stream flowing from the Divine Kingdom entering the atmosphere of the planet. For the advent of Spring is a divine advent, though it would not be so spoken of in the Church's calendar. It is a divine advent of the most momentous nature for this planet and all her children. Yearly and æonially, Spring has come, and the children of this world have looked upon it as one of the natural events begotten of the planet's motion round the sun.

Easter Day is, therefore, beautifully prophetic. It is the day of the Soul's awakening, when GOD anew calls forth HIS SON into glorious manifestation as one coming forth from the dead. It is Esther's day, for Esther is the Soul. The story of Esther is the story of a divine Soul. It is a drama in allegorical setting of the Soul's deposition, or descent through the inimical influences that came upon it, the overthrow of those elemental influences, and the restoration of the Soul to the Right Hand of her Lord.

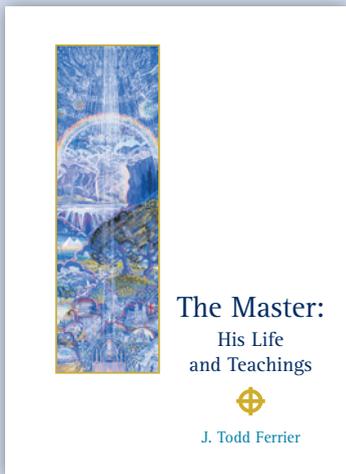

Easter Day, though held as a festival to celebrate the supposed resurrection of the Master, is none other than the day of Esther, when the angels are once more met in the way, the grave of material things is forsaken, the grave-clothes are laid aside, the sepulchre stone is rolled away, all hindrance to divine liberty overcome, and the LORD of BEING beheld once more.

The Order of the Cross Publications

This issue's featured book is 'The Master: His Life and Teachings'

THE MASTER sets forth the Inner Meanings of the Master's Teachings and gives a true picture of Him as he was in His Life, public and private. The Birth stories and the Allegories of the Soul are revealed in their true setting; with the Teachings on the profound Mystery of the Sin-offering, and the Allegories of the Soul's Awakening.

The Master's mission was distinct and unique. To those who could hear, he spoke inner truths, often in parable and allegory, which awoke their spiritual memory. These truths were of the Soul, cosmic in their significance and greater than any ecclesiastical setting could express.

As well as finding souls who could respond to his teaching, the Master was especially constituted to bear and change the dense, unspiritual conditions of the planet through the mysterious process known as the Sin-offering.

Many familiar stories are reinterpreted here, taken out of their hitherto local and personal settings and re-presented as spiritual teaching. The Master's mission was from the Heavens, to be a pure manifestation of spiritual truth and motion. As such, His sayings, His actions and His whole life was revelatory of the Divine world.

Divine Wisdom

Rebecca Keen

“As oft-times I have said to you, do not despise the knowledge that cometh from without, but make right use of it....But the real Wisdom is from within. The realisation of the Lord is in the temple of the Being.”

- Herald 18, page 180, by John Todd Ferrier

Whilst exploring the historic libraries and museums of Oxford recently, I visited a wonderful collection, or “Treasury”, of very old, beautifully handcrafted scriptures. These were works of love, treasured and preserved over the centuries, witnessing to humanity’s devotion to the true and the beautiful. Much that is beautiful and true emerges in the world without, but the realities of the Being within have what Our Friend would call the beauty and mystique of the flower. Wisdom, as Mother, nurtures its growth from seed to full flower, cherishing it until it attains to its full potential and becomes everything it was created to be. Wisdom patiently cherishes the Beloved, through all weathers, through all conditions.

“The fig tree symbolizes the Divine Wisdom. But it symbolizes more. It symbolizes the Divine Motherhood.” - Herald 21, p137 by John Todd Ferrier

The fig hides, like a secret, amongst the leaves which cover it, a small fruit, full of seeds, full of potency. It is not a lush, colourful and obvious fruit, for its many riches lie within. It was beneath a fig tree that Buddha is said to have sat for years in contemplation. The guileless disciple Nathanael is identified as one who has been seen sitting beneath this tree. It is the place where the Soul seeks to unlock the deeper wisdom and most profound truths of the Being.

Rather like carefully opening a timeless and treasured book, discovering the fruit which lies between the leaves, we come to The Message as seekers, sitting down beneath that mysterious tree. Each time we read and share the Teachings, we are sharing the wisdom which lies within the fig, the Divine wisdom which is of the heavens.

“It is from the Divine FATHER-MOTHER alone that all heavenly wisdom proceedeth, and not from any man.” - The Master, p342, by John Todd Ferrier

In the same way that we understand the Divine as Father and Mother, as dual in motion, but One in Being, we refer to the Divine Love and Wisdom as dual, yet One. For Love and Wisdom are inseparable. As our two eyes resolve into a single vision, or our two legs enable perfect balance and alignment of the body, so do Love and Wisdom constitute the One threshold of the inner temple of Being. As twin pillars, or right and left of that threshold, they form one unified gateway, Love and Wisdom in perfect balance. This is Love which is wise, and Wisdom which is loving. The radiantly equipoised Cross forms the key to unlocking the consciousness which knows, remembers, and is able to touch the Divine in each Soul. Just as the fig is a treasury of seeds, and the library a treasury of knowledges, the Being itself is a temple and treasury of the Divine. Every cover of every Order book reminds us of this fundamental truth. Incorruptible as gold, pure and eternal as frank incense and myrrh, this Love which is wise, Wisdom which is loving, is of Christ

“To have consciousness of the heavenly wisdom.....is to find the rest this World cannot give” - Herald 21, page 138, by John Todd Ferrier

Thomas Hardy (1840 - 1928)

Paul Renshaw

“My opinion is that a Poet should express the emotion of all the ages and the thought of his own.”

In 1898 Hardy, one of Dorset’s most distinguished men, left fiction behind and published his first volume of poetry, WESSEX POEMS, a collection written over a period of thirty years; and notwithstanding his work as a novelist he regarded himself principally as a Poet.

Thomas Hardy

He was admired by writers from Auden, Larkin and Pound, to Virginia Woolf, who said that he had a “powerful imagination, a profound and poetic genius.” The complete poems runs to over 900 pages so selecting quotes for a short article is not easy, but here is one of his shortest and most telling poems:-

*“Peace upon earth! was said. We sing it,
And pay a million priests to bring it.
After two thousand years of mass
We’ve got as far as poison-gas.”*

If you are new to Hardy you might care to begin with work such as The Oxen (the spiritual wistfulness of its last line ‘Hoping it might be so’) Weathers, Paying Calls, Last Words to a Dumb Friend and for a delicious ironical humour Wagtail and Baby. He had an impish quality – but with a point to make. But his ‘well’ of poetry is very deep and so worth the search.

His compassion was not confined to words alone; there was a strong advocacy for animal welfare. He was opposed to blood sports, dog chaining and the caging of birds as well as holding anti-vivisectionist views. He was a member of the RSPCA.

Apparently he dedicated his last poem to Florence his second wife appropriately titled He Resolves to Say No More. Was there a twinkle in his eye?

Turbo Tortilla

A vegan take on the classic Spanish omelette. It's a great way to use up leftover cooked veggies. If you want to up the protein content, replace 100g of the veg with crumbled firm tofu.

Preheat oven to 180°C | Large saucepan | Large baking tray | Large frying pan | Medium frying pan. Serves 4.

Ingredients

200g waxy new potatoes, such as Jersey Royals	1 garlic clove
100g Tenderstem broccoli	1 fresh red chilli
100g asparagus	3 tbsp olive oil
1 red pepper	175g gram flour
100g cherry tomatoes	1 tsp salt
1 medium red onion	175ml water

Instructions

Wash and thinly slice the potatoes and put them into the saucepan. Fill the pan with cold, salted water and place over a high heat | Bring to the boil and cook for 10 minutes. Drain and set aside.

Meanwhile, prepare the rest of your veg | Trim the broccoli and asparagus and cut them into bite-sized pieces | Cut the pepper in half, cut out the stem and seeds and chop into bite-sized chunks | Spread the broccoli, asparagus, pepper and tomatoes evenly over the baking tray | Put the tray in the oven to cook the veggies for 20 mins.

Peel and thinly slice the red onion and garlic | Rip the stem from the chill, cut it in half lengthways, remove the seeds and finely chop | Put the large frying pan over a medium heat and add 2 tablespoons of the olive oil. Add the onions and sweat, stirring occasionally, for 8-10 minutes, until translucent | Add the garlic and chilli and cook for a further 3-4 minutes | Remove from the heat and set aside.

Sift the gram flour and salt into a large bowl | Gradually add the water, whisking constantly until you have a smooth batter (you may not need to use all the water) | Tip all the cooked vegetables into the batter and stir to cover.

To cook the tortilla, put the medium frying pan over a medium heat and add 1 tablespoon olive oil | Pour in the batter with all the vegetables and cook for about 20-25 minutes, until the edges are golden and crispy.

Gently loosen the edges with a spatula or spoon and remove from the pan, cut it into slices and serve immediately.

The Blessing of Compassion

‘Blessed are the compassionate, and those whose heart is full of sweet understanding.’

‘Let Love distinguish you. To be the child of the Divine Love, both in realization and manifestation, is more to be desired than earthly inheritance and power.’

---

‘Your compassion will comfort.’

---

‘For Love enriches the life. Love exalts the vision. Love ennobles the purpose. The regnancy of Love is assured.’

‘Therefore, love ye one another. To rule by love those who are within our circle, is a greater thing, and more to be desired, than to rule a Kingdom of Earth.’

---

Let the Good of Love, and the Truth of Love, ever be expressed in all your ways.’

---

‘For the Good of Love is its healing power, and the Truth of Love is its Radiance.’

The Joy of Spring

Alison Muirhead

“The Winter is over and gone away, and the voice of Spring is heard in the land. The singing of birds has come, and the flowers of the field bloom, the trees are re-mantling. The earth seems to live again after months of silence and apparent inactivity; for the Breath of the Eternal has passed through all its Planes and Kingdoms in the processional through the Solar Equinoctial Stream.” - Herald 9, p35

I have just spotted the first snowdrops on our roadside. After the storms and dark days of January it is such a joyful moment. It makes me wonder at the hardiness of such tiny, delicate plants that flower hidden in the melting snow of the verges. We can feel a sense of relief that the dark days are coming to an end and reassurance that Spring brings bright days once again.

It is good to remember that “The Earth is the Lord’s.” - Herald 20, p122.

The life force, beauty and resilience of Nature is still a mystery that science, so far, cannot fully grasp. The first snowdrop, crocus and daffodil are proof to me that the Laws of the Lord are operative. A testament to the invisible Life-stream that constantly flows to the Planet for nourishment and growth. These signs and symbols that the first spring flowers signify remind me of the unseen Angelic presences that are ministering on our behalf.

“Look to the Solar Body – nay, look to Him Who is behind the Sun. Look to Him Who is at the heart of the Universe. Lift up your heads, look, see, understand! He has never forgotten, He has never forgotten! He has been operative through the Solar Body for thousands of years, to bring about a happier state of this World;” - Herald 20, p131

We can share in the work of bringing about happier states for the World. As we approach the time for Easter celebrations in the outer world, we can embrace the true meaning of acknowledging the hand of the Divine in our World but also in our own lives. We just have to be open to acknowledging the Divine Love and Wisdom as we meet it on the way

“Easter is like Spring when all nature is awakening in this hemisphere, quickened anew in its hidden life for manifestation, rejuvenated through the glorious magnetic Life-stream flowing from the Divine Kingdom entering the atmosphere of the planet.” - Life’s Mysteries Unveiled p361

Let us rejoice and give thanks as we appreciate “the glorious manifestation of Divine Love and Wisdom in Spring.” - Herald 9, p36

The Blessing

And the LORD's command unto Moses HIS Servant was - “Speak unto Aaron that he informs Israel of the Blessing of the LORD.

And thus shall he speak -

The LORD HIMSELF doth bless thee, through having thee in HIS keeping.

The LORD HIMSELF doth unveil HIS Radiance unto thee, and therein reveal HIS grace and graciousness.

The LORD HIMSELF doth lift thee up in the spiral of thy Being into the Spiral Breath of HIS Presence, to fill thee with the Great Peace.

Thus shall HIS Name be written upon thee, even the Secret Name of HIS Mystery.”
